Andres de Cella

The image shows a single page from an old manuscript. The text is written in a dense, cursive hand, characteristic of the late 15th or early 16th century. The ink is dark, and the paper is aged and slightly yellowed. A large, dark, curved mark, possibly a binding element or a large initial, is visible on the left side of the page, partially obscuring the text. The handwriting is very close together, filling most of the page.
